

Let Go

Slushii

Some days I'm fine but some days I just wanna forget
Let it all out, it's what I really should do instead
Hold back the tears, hoping one day the pain goes away
Swallow my fear and accept that there's no other way

Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago
You love someone but my heart isn't one that you chose
If I could say what was kept buried deep in my soul
You would be mine, but I guess that's just how our lives go

(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)

Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago
You love someone but my heart isn't one that you chose
If I could say what was kept buried deep in my soul
You would be mine, but I guess that's just how our lives go

(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
(Burning the bridges have been in my heart long ago)
