Slushii

Bless my lavish soul mama know I trap
Whipping up that soft 'til it turn to
My whole team the with me they so militant
We marching to the plan

See we run this shit yeah
We just young and lit
We gon' burn it down turn me up a bit

See we run this shit yeah
We just young and lit yeah
Keep it young and lit

Yeah we just young and lit

Popped another bar and I feel like I'm on a island
I just called that girl I said I wouldn't now I'm toxic
You know I can't fuck with you no more and so I'm sorry
I'm sad that your crying, baby wipe your eyes

Love ain't real that's why we can't be together
Who you fuck with more?
Wait who gon' fuck you better

Swear I'm every girl type now I done got my bread up

I don't care fuck that shit
I'm too young and lit
