

No Time

Slut

Yes yes even if the good old clouds along my way
Became frustrated philosophers for one day

No time

No time

I'll keep it going

No time

No time

I'll keep it going

No time

No time

There is no reason for this

No time

No time

And there is nothing to explain

I got no reason to complain

And i'll keep it going

Yes yes even if my lucky lips were sealed once more
And if I tomorrow was much younger than before

No time

No time

I'll keep it going

No time

No time

Don't mind

And the choir goes

No time

No time

There is no reason for this

No time

No time

And there is nothing to explain

I got no reason to complain

A I'll keep it going

No time

No time

There is no reason for this

No time

No time

And there is nothing to explain

No time

No time

I got no reason to complain

No time

No time

What if you saying wasn't right

And i'll keep it going
