

I'm a beggar but I'm choosy with my love
'Cause I've had cheap drugs before
But I want you more

She's like Balenciaga, I've got a spending problem
But I just let my line and credit do the problem solving
I like to hover just above rock bottom
So I never fall farther than an apple, in autumn

I keep my bags light
My gangs tight
Always ready for a flight
Take the Monday overnight

We'll find a brand new country
Where the dollar goes farther
'Cause everywhere we go
We let the milk and honey flow

I'm a beggar but I'm choosy with my love
'Cause I've had cheap drugs before
But I want you more
You're the only one I choose to kick my rush
'Cause I've had cheap drugs before
But I want you more

Party in the centimodel
While working in the concierge
Pop the most expensive bottle
As long as they don't mind it's theirs
I pull up in that rose phantom
I hope the owner tips me well
Drop the cash off with my friend
Gets me 50 off the wire sell

'Cause I'm so done done with that fast fashion
I want the best that my deck can get
'Cause it's alright, it's okay
I'ma drop this beat today
Watch that money flow my way

I'm a beggar but I'm choosy with my love
'Cause I've had cheap drugs before
But I want you more
You're the only one I choose to kick my rush
'Cause I've never been more satisfied
With you just passed out here by my side

In this bed, house suite and garden
Can't afford it but I'm charging
'Cause I made the banks a promise
Don't know I'm starving for ya

She's like Balenciaga when you've only fucked with Zara
You know I'm starvin' for ya
