

Cameras & Coastlines

Smallpools

Cameras & coastlines
Now I'm just colorblind

Black and white dress with your brown eyes
Been obsessed ever since that one night
So picturesque, we built a life

Another star-filled night to a sunrise
Do you still think of me sometimes?
Were you ever even mine?

All of my life
I spend it chasing the high
That I had when you were with me
I'm trying to trick destiny

All of my life
Living on coffee and wine
When I was lost at sea
You saw the best in me

Cameras & coastlines
Now I'm just colorblind
Cameras & coastlines
(Black and white dress with your brown eyes)
Were you ever even mine?
(Do you still think of me sometimes?)

Sometimes I feel like I'm drowning
Maybe I'm lost and maybe you found
Inner peace, out of town
New keys, for your rental house

If you lose your focus and you want to come back
Then I can take some solace in that

All of my life
I spend it chasing the high
That I had when you were with me
I'm trying to trick destiny

All of my life
Living on coffee and wine
When I was lost at sea
You saw the best in me

Cameras & coastlines
Now I'm just colorblind
Cameras & coastlines
(Black and white dress with your brown eyes)
Were you ever even mine?
(Do you still think of me sometimes?)

All of my life
I spend it chasing the high
When I was lost at sea
You saw the best in me
