

Social

Smallpools

I behave like I'm so social
I've seen it all before
Take me away right now
'Bout I save yourself

Someday I'll be old and out of touch
Will I miss too much?
Did I beat the rush by default
I've always cared a bit too much
Did I make the cut?
I said I'm thinking but I'm just stalling

Then I get that calling
And I behave like I'm so social
I've seen it all before
Take me away right now
'Bout I save yourself
From the so social
I'm sleeping on the floor
If you can hear this now
'Bout I save yourself

Oh you play up to something
Oh you play up to something more
I must be playing for something

Somedays I feel colder to the touch
Who am I to judge?
Must've missed the crutch by default
My thoughts will never be enough
Can we get in touch?
I said I'm busy but I'm just stalling

Then I get that calling
And I behave like I'm so social
I've seen it all before
Take me away right now
'Bout I save yourself
From the so social
I'm sleeping on the floor
If you can hear this now
'Bout I save yourself

Oh you play up to something
Oh you play up to something more
I must be playing for something

Social
Social
Sorry, so social

I behave like I'm so social
Got nothing to show for Me standing here right now
From the so social
Can't fake it anymore

If you can hear this now

Oh you play up to something
Oh you play up to something more
I must be playing for something
