

Guillotine

Smash Into Pieces

It's the end of the world

Yeah they wanna keep you down wanna keep you in the dark
Wanna put out any fire you still got in your heart
Stepping on your head keep your face down in the mud
Only thing you'll ever do is what they told you that you should

Don't believe their lies and don't let go of what you got
To reach Olympus all it takes is just one spark

That's what you tell yourself to get by
That's what you tell yourself to stay alive
You're gonna lose your head tonight

Guillotine head down lamb to the slaughter
Guillotine we bow down to our masters guillotine

Yeah you're crawling on the ground neath the party in the sky
But your torn and broken wings never ever learned to fly
You're never gonna change doesn't matter how you try
But you're clinging to a dream just to get on through the night

Don't believe their lies and don't let go of what you got
To reach Olympus all it takes is just one spark

That's what you tell yourself to get by
That's what you tell yourself to stay alive
You're gonna lose your head tonight

Guillotine head down lamb to the slaughter
Guillotine we bow down to our masters guillotine

Fall in line and give your blood quick and easy nothing hurts
Guillotine head down it's the end of the world

Yeah they wanna keep you down wanna keep you in the dark
Wanna put out any fire you still got in your heart
Stepping on your head keep your face down in the mud
Only thing you'll ever do is what they told you that you should

Head down it's the end of the world
