

My Cocaine

Smash Into Pieces

We need a change
Cause we are broken in a million ways
I gave you my word
All I spoke was only truth you heard
What else could I do
Forgive forget was not enough for you
No relief
For my heartbeats, no

You say that you will be better of without me
No doubt about it
Even if it's the only way
I'm always right here waiting cold in the rain
Cause somehow you're my cocaine

Remember the days
Love in letters now in broken frames
Guess I have learned
That karma bites and that's what I deserve

Silent breeze
Of a love released, oh

You say that you will be better of without me
No doubt about it
Even if it's the only way
I'm always right here waiting cold in the rain
Cause somehow you're my cocaine

Hands up high
I reach for the sky where angels fly rather be with them now
The stars won't shine
Without you no heartbeats of mine

You're my cocaine
You say that you will be better of without me
No doubt about it
Even if it's the only way
Cause somehow you're my cocaine
You're my cocaine
You're my cocaine, ooh
