

Watching Over You

Smash Into Pieces

I'm walking into the unknown
My lights are on but nobody's home
I follow wherever you go
I can't go on forever alone

What about you and me
What is reality
Is this a sign of insanity

I'm drowning in my favorite game
Every night is all the same
Life in déjà vu, I'm watching over you
I'll follow every move you make
Anything to keep you safe
That is all I do, I'm watching over you

I'm watching over you
I'm watching over you

I'm crawling, I'm sick of it all
No one's around nobody to call
I'm falling, I'm burning it down
Can't face it now I'm too underground

What about you and me
What is reality
The only thing that's making me feel

I'm drowning in my favorite game
Every night is all the same
Life in déjà vu I'm watching over you
I'll follow every move you make
Anything to keep you safe
That is all I do I'm watching over you
I'm watching over you
I'm watching over you

When you're asleep I take it slow
Cause I'll be here, I can't let go
There's nothing I would rather do
Then spend the night together with you

I'm drowning in my favorite game
I'm watching over you

I'm drowning in my favorite game
Every night is all the same
Life in déjà vu
I'm watching over you
I'll follow every move you make
Anything to keep you safe
That is all I do
I'm watching over you

I'm watching over you
I'm watching over you
