

(Let's Start) Tomorrow Night

SMASH

Round and round goes the wheel of love
Some say like Russian roulette
There's a jackpot I'm dreaming of
I'm ready to place my bet

No need to beg, steal or borrow
The future is looking bright
Yes, I'm laying odds on tomorrow
So let's start tomorrow tonight

Can't cha feel, baby, we're in the chips
Tomorrow's our lucky day
I can feel gold at our fingertips
We'll prosper if we parlay

No time for sadness and sorrow
Together, we'll fight that fight
Yes, I'm laying odds on tomorrow
So let's start tomorrow tonight

Don't need no clover or lucky charm
That rabbit can keep his foot
As long as we're walkin' arm in arm
It's aces, I feel
So shut up and deal!

I know that we're on a winning streak
The future can't come too soon
Let's climb together to reach that peak
Then baby, we'll shoot the moon

I'm high as Kilimanjaro
And with you, Jack, I'm ready for flight
Yes, I'm laying odds on tomorrow
So let's start tomorrow tonight

As long as we're walkin' arm in arm
It's aces, I feel!
So shut up and deal!
Oh, I know that we're on a winning streak
The future can't come too soon

Let's climb together to reach that peak
Then baby, we'll shoot the moon
I'm high as Kilimanjaro
And with you, Jack, I'm ready for flight

Yes, I'm laying odds on tomorrow
So let's start tomorrow tonight
Let's start tomorrow tonight
