Beguiled

The Smashing Pumpkins

So swallow hard the serpent
Of many tags and faces hid in masks
Coiled 'round this lung until the last

He'll crack your boots, young pagans
'Cause like you I was hatched to traipse on cold
And seventeen's a long drawn way from hope

And I'll learned these lessons I was taught
Taut, so taut
And now I'm telling you...

Return the faith
Return the faith
They're smashing out the veils
Return the faith

And there's no escape
So return the faith
With charging light brigades
Return the faith

You've gotta move!

So as betrayed by rainbows
Here I convey I've sold out your dear cause
And the king has placed us in his jaws

It's sure no place can hold us
But in this scene I'm December
And your June's wretch
And my idyls lay gasping as if death

And I've learned these lessons I was taught
Taut, so taut
And now I'm telling you...

Return the faith
Return the faith
They're smashing out the veils
Return the faith

And there's no escape
So return the faith
With charging light brigades
Return the faith

You've gotta move!

Return the faith
Return the faith
Return the faith
Return the faith
Return the faith
