

Crawl

The Smashing Pumpkins

Waiting for someone, see if I deserve
Time I've forgotten, ones I should preserve

And I crawl, I crawl

Embers of treason burn inside somehow
Glad that's over, still wish you'd call

And I crawl, I crawl

There's no reason in the reasons I care
I've got reasons, reasons I should share

You believe that I crawl
You still see me crawl
You believe I crawl
