

Denial

Smile Empty Soul

Still asleep in a lonely bed
Knowing you've been there for dead
Still a dream and hope for all thing ends

Open up your eyes
Still asleep and confident
Bend every real and pretend
Bury every heading to descend
Hide me from the lies

Still asleep
Still a dream
Still ashamed of all the human race
Open up your eyes

Still asleep
Still a dream
Stop and see the lies
