

Jesus Is The Manager Of Wal-Mart

Smile Empty Soul

Come on in little one but remember where you are Hold your thought and your tongue and grab yourself a cart
To fill with all the shit that keeps you on your knees
And if you lead a life of sin, when you're here pretend you're clean

Because Jesus is the manager at Wal-Mart
Yeah, Jesus is the manager at Wal-Mart
He freed us from our sins, and gave the world a new start
Now Jesus is the manager at Wal-Mart

Close your mind with the door to keep the demons out
Everyone in the store has shut their little mouths
Except when to say, "look how much we saved"
And all we have to do is smile, while our minds decay

And if you say, he died for you, you'll be saved
And if you say, he died for you, then you'll save

Close your mind with the door
Close your mind with the door
