Manifesto

Smile Empty Soul

Daylight
Giving way to twilight
You're standing on my baseline
I'm bleeding on myself
Hang tight
You're stealing all my sunshine
I'm gonna cut your lifeline
You're playing with your health

Move forward in your life without me
I'm far away from here
Get fucked for all I care, ignore me
I'm far away from here

Looking back alone
Happy as can

Be, that little nothing
That little piece of shit I scrape off from
The bottom of my soul and now I'm
Free, not self-destructing
No longer trapped inside a prison that
Was tearing my whole world apart
And I, can visualize, not paralyzed

Straight line
Walking through the end times
You're fucking with my sunshine
We're living in this hell

Move forward in your life without me
I'm far away from here
Get fucked for all I care, ignore me
I'm far away from here

Looking back alone
Happy as can

Be, that little nothing
That little piece of shit I scrape off from
The bottom of my soul and now I'm
Free, not self-destructing
No longer trapped inside a prison that
Was tearing my whole world apart
And I, can visualize, not paralyzed

Be, that little nothing
That little piece of shit I scrape off from
The bottom of my soul and now I'm
Free, not self-destructing
No longer trapped inside a prison that
Was tearing my whole world apart
And I, can visualize, not paralyzed
