

My Name

Smile Empty Soul

Calling another monster
Steady as you do (Steady as you do)
Scars are a little darker
A chance to be renewed (A chance to be renewed)

I'm sorry for the bitter taste
I seem to leave with everybody
Close the door and turn to walk away
It's not worth saying something
You probably wish you never knew my name
(My name)

Your voice is a little weaker
In disposition to you (In disposition to you)
Get closer to the fire
A chance to be renewed (A chance to be renewed)

And I'm sorry for the bitter taste
I seem to leave with everybody
Close the door and turn to walk away
It's not worth saying something
You probably wish you never knew my name

I carry enough regrets to build this mess
And tear it to the ground
Feeling a step behind, pathetic life
Of dragging around

I'm sorry for the bitter taste
I seem to leave with everybody
Close the door and turn to walk away
It's not worth saying something
You probably wish you never knew my name
(My name)
