

Sides

Smile Empty Soul

You see the world within your plan
Change it all at your command
But all the dollars in the land will never fill you up again
You cut your face to fit right in
Sell your soul if that's the trend
But all of those malignant friends will turn their backs on you again

Tonight, you better pick a side
Do you see in darkness or light

You sacrificed your innocence
So you could be a part of them
But all that's left are skeletons when vultures eat away the flesh
You drank the blood and bowed your head
Crossed the line with no regrets
But all of those malignant friends will turn their backs on you again

Tonight, you better pick a side
Do you feel a heartbeat this time
Yeah tonight, you better pick a side
Do you see in darkness or light
Take a side

Oh, oh
Oh, oh

So tonight, you better pick a side
Do you feel a heartbeat this time
Yeah tonight, you better pick a side
Do you see in darkness or light
Take a side
