

Something New

Smile Empty Soul

Cruel people in power
That hide away the truth
To scatter and confuse
Keep the people delighted
With fear and biased news
To influence their views

Does anybody long for something new?
Tired of these lies I want the truth
Look up in the sky I'm asking you
Please tell me in a wreck
Jesus is coming back

We all need to question
Everything they say
Every word every day
And then we need action
If theirs is not your way
Stand up, don't be afraid

Does anybody long for something new?
Tired of these lies I want the truth
Look up in the sky I'm asking you
Please tell me in a wreck
Jesus is coming back

Does anybody long for something new?
Tired of these lies I want the truth
Look up in the sky I'm asking you
Please tell me in a wreck
Jesus is coming back

I don't wanna hear your lies anymore
I don't wanna sing this song anymore
I don't wanna hear your lies anymore
I don't wanna sing this song anymore

Cruel people in power
That hide away the truth
To scatter and confuse
Keep the people delighted
With fear and biased news
To influence their views

Does anybody long for something new?
Tired of these lies I want the truth
Look up in the sky I'm asking you
Please tell me in a wreck
Jesus is coming back

Does anybody long for something new?
Tired of these lies I want the truth
Look up in the sky I'm asking you
Please tell me in a wreck
Jesus is coming back

There's no easy answer

For all that I can say
Theirs is not my way
There's no easy answer
For all that I can say
