

Violence

Smile Empty Soul

Sometimes you'll win, sometimes you won't
Sometimes you feel, sometimes you don't
I give it all then overload
A broken piece is never whole

And all that I wanted was taken from me

So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence
Bury me, bury me, bury me in silences
I feel it now, feel it now, feel it now I'm dying
So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence now

You tear me down then build me up
But leave a hole, I'm not enough
Becoming clear you like it rough
Cut so deep and call it love

And all that I wanted was taken from me

So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence
Bury me, bury me, bury me in silences
I feel it now, feel it now, feel it now you're lying
So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence now

So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence
Bury me, bury me, bury me in silences
I feel it now, feel it now, feel it now we're dying
So bury me, bury me, bury me in violence now
