Ruby Red

Smino

Girl that ass look like a grapefruit
Ruby red bone
No Pulp Fiction, my backseat got so much leg room
(Na-na, na-na)
Straight loot, what my head on
Guarantee, if you fall for me, I'll do you dead wrong
But I got this Jack though
And a big ass studio
Where the clique at right now
Getting to the M's till the lights out
Pour a little bit, sip it up, 'fore I hit the cut Rip it up, like some old jeans, did it just because You a star, gotta find your light switch, turn it up
Never go dim again, I got plenty women
From the river front to Lake Michigan

Little baby I am not exaggerating, I could fuck around and change ya whole l ife... (yeah)
I sex ya, send a text like two weeks later
Man, I'm really, really, trying to do right (alright)
But, I'm a gentleman baby
No doubt about it
You got questions on questions, no interviews baby
Let's go somewhere private
We can star 69, take your ass to Uranus
My favorite planet
Zero gravity, how could you say no
Zero Gang with me everywhere I go
And it's all because...

I got a problem with trusting somebody new Niggas switch up, no chameleons up in the crew
Got shottas in Pradas, get money the motto (oh-whoa)
All my niggas country like Demi Lovato (oh-whoa)
I'm booked, I got chapters on chapters like Kellz
I try to find time, but my watch always fail
I can't give it up, Ramadan (a-a-an)
I could put your ass on some wings just to ketchup
I've been out here repping, just getting my rep up
This blood and sweat real, what you thought it was ketchup?
I got it made with you, yeah, you clean my mess up
Yeah, you my best fuck, don't let it go to ya head
Unless you gon' throw a lil extra spit with the head
I love it when you do that
I'm rambling, but I'm a hundred and 3 percent
I just need R and R
Don't need no deeper shit
I say that shit again
I got plenty women from the riverfront to Lake Michigan

Little baby I am not exaggerating, I could fuck around and change ya whole l

(It's all because)
(Yeah, it's all because)
(It's all because)
