Bottle Tops

Smith & Burrows

We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
Holiday was for making friends you know you're never ever gonna see a gain
But then the heart feels something that stays with you forever
So you find someone who you think you know
You have to stop and think about it, give it time to glow
Because your head wants someone you know will leave you never

Untie, she's with the bottle tops, then
Hope that you'll notice me when you do it'll all come clear
I'm on my own you see, just for the moment baby
I'll be your one and only, I'll die a happy man

We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
Wilder days when we're just making love
Seem to fit together like a hand in a glove
But then your heart notice something
This might not be forever
The mood had changed like the sun had set
If we're being honest the mood I regret
But then my head told me something
You'll only make this heavy weather

Untie, she's with the bottle tops, then
Hope that you'll notice me when you do it'll all come clear
I'm on my own you see, just for a moment maybe
I'll be your one and only, I'll die a happy man

We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this clouds surrounding me, whatever

Untie, she's with the bottle tops, then
Hope that you'll notice me when you do it'll all come clear
I'm on my own you see, just for a moment maybe
I'll be your one and only, I'll die a happy man

We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
We don't get a broken heart and take my life and just restart it
We can walk where love dissolve this cloud surrounding me, whatever
