

Buccaneer Rum Jum

Smith & Burrows

Did you ever swim back up from the bottom to the top?
Did you see the sun come up again?
'Cause I saw you change the lock upon the bottle
With a little luck you don't know
With a little luck you might come back to earth

Oh, pass the mirror to me
Is there someone I know in there?
Someone I wanna be?
Oh, I guess that we're just lucky
Forever falling back down to earth
To the bottom of the sea

Did you ever find someone to get ghost with?
A buccaneer rum jum on the side
Did you ever worry that you might get rumbled?
With a little luck you don't know
With a little luck you might come back to earth

Oh, pass the mirror to me
Is there someone I know in there?
Someone I wanna be?
Oh, I guess that we're just lucky
Forever falling back down to earth
To the bottom of the sea, to the bottom of the sea, to the bottom of the sea

Buccaneer rum jum
Buccaneer rum jum

Got a one way ticket now you marauder
There's nothing left for you round here
I'm not gonna mend your broken pieces anymore
With a little luck you might come down
With a little luck you might come back to me

Oh, pass the mirror to me
Is there someone I know in there?
Someone I wanna be?
Oh, I guess that we're just lucky
Forever falling back down to earth
To the bottom of the sea, to the bottom of the sea, to the bottom of the sea

Buccaneer rum jum, oh
Buccaneer rum jum
Buccaneer rum jum, oh
Buccaneer rum jum
