

The Matrix

Smokepurpp

All this shit could fall apart, it could fall apart
Know we built this from the start
All this shit could fall apart, it could fall apart
Thought I let hold all my heart

Man in a matrix, in the matrix
We got em' here outside the matrix
Man in the matrix, in the matrix
We got em' here outside the matrix

We don't start the matrix
Everything expensive, nothing basic
Model bitches turnin' up, they naked
And they love the 42, I roll a wood
I face it

You know I go ape shit
And I'm steady fighting cases
I still smoke the same shit
I'm still on some gain shit
And I'm still free bandz I'm still bussin out the bank bitch

He gon' say "oh, he a hero"
Fuckin on this bitch on the D-lo
Pass around the liquors we don't see no
I see through niggas like a peephole

All this shit could fall apart, it could fall apart
Know we built this from the start
All this shit could fall apart, it could fall apart
Thought I let hold all my heart

Man in a matrix, in the matrix
We got em' here outside the matrix
Man in the matrix, in the matrix
We got em' here outside the matrix
