

My Love For You

Smokey Robinson & The Miracles

My love for you
It shall endure the storms of time
And you'll remember

My love for you

My love is true
But only time will tell it's not a dying ember
It'll burn on through
I'm hoping too
That maybe you
Will need an understanding shoulder you can cry on
You can rely on
When you're blue
In case you do
Find that you need a love to cling to for a lifetime
And what's my cue?
I'm telling you
Someday you'll know the hopes and dreams I've had my share of You'll be aware of my love for you

My love for you
Will last forever
My love for you
Will end never
My love for you
