My friends come to tell me something Lately they seen you running tell me baby are we the talk of the town You told me yu spent the nights workin stead you been out drinkin and flirtin Two can play that game and I know how I can be a heartbreaker, too I can break as many hearts as you I can turn them on or turn them down Cos there ain't a trick that I can't use I learned the best of them from you Your heart just might break Before it's through I can be a heartbreaker, too some night when you're out romancin You just might see me dancin with the best lookin lady in the room You'll be the one who ends up stranded The one who's empty handed It'll be your turn to play the fool I can be a heartbreaker, too... you can lose me you can't have it both ways If you go I hope you know What you're throwing away I can be a heartbreaker, too...