We were walking, we were barely talking It was late '63 Clouds were overloaded, and when they exploded You said to me Oh, oh, oh, look at the rain Oh, oh, oh, umbrella day, throw it away Out together it was stormy weather We were soaked to the skin Thunder crashing, we wee puddle splashing and we started to sing Oh, oh, oh, look at the rain Oh, oh, oh, umbrella day, throw it away Now look my way and see, just how wonderful Rain can be, loving you loving me It's going round, tound, round Down, down and down Round round and round, down, down and down we were calling at the water falling As I fell to the ground You and I, we really blessed the sky Oh, for this new love we've found Oh, oh, oh look at the rain Oh, oh, oh, umbrella day Oh, oh, oh , look at the rain Oh, oh, oh, umbrella day It's going round, round and round Down, down and down Round, round, and round, down down and down