

Alive

Snak the Ripper

Man I can't remember nothing, last night was a blur, I aint even feeling uptight of what might of occurred, probably acting kinda rowdy all hype and absurd, I don't really hold back, i aint the type to conserve, woke up an realized I got nothin to do, for the rest of day, I ain't gonna stress it away, found some left over beer, out back on the deck, got a blunt on my ear and im ready to step, turn my headphones up about as loud as they get, the sun is shining in my face and I'm starting to sweat, feel on top of the world, it's the weather I bet,
I got a feeling that today's a day I'll never forget.

I can feel it, deep inside, it's so good to be alive, this is where I wanna be, wish this would last forever,

Right now I feel the beat I know I'm not the only one, don't care what happens next, I guess I'll know it when it comes,
feeling hella blessed just getting faded in the sun, forget about the stress cause I'm too busy having fun,

There's no place I'd rather be that right here with my fam, posted up doing nothing with a beer in my hand, If you talking negative then I ain't hearin it man, and if you don't understand I'll be as clear as I can, we got no time for drama, we just having a blast, just soaking up the moment cause its happening fast, so we just, keep livin like today was our last, cause tomorrow's never promised, yesterday's in the past, aint making any plans we just go with the flow, just livin in the moment cause its all that we know, Feel on top of the world, it's the weather I bet,
I got a feeling that today's a day I'll never forget

I can feel it, deep inside, it's so good to be alive,
this is where I wanna be, wish this would last forever

Right now I feel the beat I know I'm not the only one,
don't care what happens next, I guess I'll know it when it comes,
feeling hella blessed just getting faded in the sun,
forget about the stress cause I'm too busy having fun,

Its been a long day, but I feel relaxed, just cracked the bombay, tryin to fill my glass, the party rockin and the cops are knocking at the door, we don't plan on stoppin, guess they probably already know, that's why they turned around and theyre leaving us alone, give me a beat and best believe I'm in my zone, Im Smoking to relieve the stress inside my dome, don't need to know what you been puffin on I got my own, now we really getting in it, take a minute to reflect, life is always a surprise you just don't know what to expect, feelin on top of the world, it's the weather I bet, I got a feeling that tonight's a night I'll never forget

I can feel it, deep inside, it's so good to be alive,
this is where I wanna be, wish this would last forever

Right now I feel the beat I know I'm not the only one,
don't care what happens next, I guess I'll know it when it comes,
feeling hella blessed just getting faded in the sun,
forget about the stress cause I'm too busy having fun,
