

All I Ever

Snakehips

All I ever ask for is your honesty, honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty
All I ever ask for is your honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty

All I ever ask for is your honesty, honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty
All I ever ask for is your honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty

I don't know about your intentions
You're so hard to read
Can we make this clear?
And I can't help but over think it
Every time you leave
And even when you're here

I don't know about your intentions
You're so hard to read
Can we make this clear?
And I can't help but over think it
Every time you leave
And even when you're here

All I ever ask for is your honesty, honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty
All I ever ask for is your honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty

I don't know about your intentions
You're so hard to read
Can we make this clear?
And I can't help but over think it
Every time you leave
And even when you're here

All I ever ask for is your honesty, honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty
All I ever ask for is your honesty
Just gimme gimme your honesty, your honesty

I don't know about your intentions
You're so hard to read
Can we make this clear?
And I can't help but over think it
Every time you leave
