

Moncler (That Switch)

Snakehips

I can be your man in the moncler
Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
When the moon shakes, make everyone stare
See the sunshine through, when it's all clear

I can be your man in the moncler
Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
How you do that switch with your hips bare?
If you walk past me, it'll stop there

If you walk past me, it'll stop there

Make a splash when it drop, but fuck it, I don't really care

Two step in the club, getting hot in the spot
Raise a glass, when I'm gone off the liquor, uh
Seen you walk in the place with a bae
But she just seen me, now your girl feeling fickle, uh

Be a man, you're a fan, stop staring
It'll last longer if you go and take a picture, uh
If you go and take a picture, uh
Go ahead, take a picture now

I can be your man in the moncler
Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
When the moon shakes, make everyone stare
See the sunshine through, when it's all clear

I can be your man in the moncler
Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
How you do that switch with your hips bare?
If you walk past me, it'll stop there

If you walk past me, it'll stop there

Make a splash when it drop, but fuck it, I don't really care

Yeah, I know I look good, so I couldn't care less
Go ahead, take a flick, baby
Got an eye for this shit, clutching on a Nikon
Better shoot it off the hip, baby
When you hear this song in the club, be assured
Heartbeat, it'll never skip, baby
It never skips, baby
Take a sip, baby

You so irregular
You look straight out the nebula
Never a settler
You could be in my cellular
We so compatible
No need for the collateral
My Taurus to your Cancer
A quick lil fix might be the answer

I can be your man in the moncler

Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
When the moon shakes, make everyone stare
See the sunshine through, when it's all clear

I can be your man in the moncler
Got the low-rise jeans with the star flare
How you do that switch with your hips bare?
If you walk past me, it'll stop there
