

Paperweight

SNBRN

Face the unknown
To meet your heart
I loved your world
Now we're worlds apart
Suspended in
The glow between
Day and night
(Now we're worlds apart)

Don't wanna leave because I know you won't stop me
Now all the silence here is killing me softly
Holding on when we both know you don't want me
I'm not what you want

Just let me go (I don't mind it)
I'll be okay (I don't mind it)
You cut me up (I don't mind it)
Now I'm paperweight (I, I don't mind it)
Just let me go (I don't mind it)
(I don't mind it
I don't mind it
I, I don't mind it)

We came so close
Drifted apart
So typical
That's what makes it hard
Suspended in
The glow between
Day and night
(Now we're worlds apart)

Don't wanna leave because I know you won't stop me
All the silence here is killing me softly
The ghost of what you haven't said, it still haunts me
I'm not what you want

Just let me go (I don't mind it)
I'll be okay (I don't mind it)
You cut me up (I don't mind it)
Now I'm paperweight (I, I don't mind it)
Just let me go (I don't mind it)
I'll drift away (I don't mind it)
You cut me up (I don't mind it)
Now I'm paperweight
Now I'm paperweight

(I don't mind it
I don't mind it
I don't mind it
I, I don't mind it)

Just let me go (I don't mind it)
I'll be okay (I don't mind it)
You cut me up (I don't mind it)
Now I'm paperweight (I, I don't mind it)
Just let me go (I don't mind it)

I'll drift away (I don't mind it)
You cut me up (I don't mind it)
Now I'm paperweight
Now I'm paperweight
