

In the Silence of the Night

Sniff 'n' the Tears

In the silence of the night
She falls
With the fading of the light
She moves inside her head
Blue turns to grey
Her pride folds her heart away
The whole of her love is lost

In the silence of the night
She rides the night shadows
See them carry her away
And make her mind over
Blue turns to grey
Her pride folds her heart away
The whole of her love is lost

In the silence of the night
She yearns to crawl
Into her lover's waiting arms
One more time again
