

Man In A Million

Sniff 'n' the Tears

I'm going down to the schoolyard
To see my children play
I'm going down to the schoolyard yeah
To see my children play
Somebody must have told them
That their daddy went away

Da da da...
He's a man in million
Da da da...

He sailed away in a big ship
With funnels to the sky
He sailed away in a big ship yeah
With funnels up to the sky
To explore the Earth's four corners
Out to where the seagulls fly

Da da da...
He's a man in million
Da da da...

They say he seeks adventure
And derring do or die
They say he seeks adventure
With a twinkle in his eye
From beyond the High Sierras
Down into the Lorelei

Da da da...
He's a man in million
Da da da...

Will he be home by Christmas
With gifts of pirate gold
Ingots ducats by the buckets
And stories to be told
Or will he still be sailing
Through the Arctic Ocean's cold
