Look, I've been gettin' money since paper was made
Nice, ice cold, play as sharp as a blade
Spades on the table, shuffle the deck
Get you hot around your collar, chiropractor's neck
Now add another zero to the end of this check
Got a carload of bitches and they bangin' the set
With all due respect, what the fuck you expect
When you're hangin' with the motherfuckin' king of the West? Yes
My hustle, LaRussell, is bona fide
We add, subtract, then multiply
Cross your T's and dot your I's
And now your portfolio has been diversified
On the ledge, I'm the first to fly, I took flight
Remember when you're crossin' them streets to look right and left
Fuckin' with the West-West, don't wanna get your neck sweat
That'll be your best bet
Get your mind straight

Can't wait
Yeah
Can't wait
Huh?
Can't wait
Can't wait
Aye

Not just another young black nigga gettin' rich
The flow like a lo-lo, I'm finna hit the switch
I'm chosen, these niggas posin', take a pic
Everything got spent over, then I ate the piff
I'm building golden enterprises from the backyard
I know myself, so I never had to act hard
I'm getting green, my pockets full of Swiss chard
No competition, got better verses I discard

No allows, this young brother on the run
I'll probably be the greatest ever when my story done
My daddy came in the clutch, I'm Robert Horry's son
He taught me how to stay human when the glory come
I got the game from Snoop, Dre, and Eazy-E
Knew who I would be since Up in Smoke DVD
I'm from the West like 40 Water and TDE
Who knew? Snoopy D.O.G. and lil' ol' me
We'll connect in due time, had to push a flight
I'm independent, still hotter than a Brooklyn night
In the middle of the summertime
Just stay patient, it come with time
You can complain or enjoy the climb
Get your mind straight

Can't wait
