Snow Ghosts

I'm humbled
Forced upon my knees
So I stumbled
You swore you'd catch me
They're empty
The promises you have made
Found wanting
Just another honour betrayed, betrayed

You can take our lands
But I will still remain
You can take our lands
But I will still remain
You can take our lands
But I will still remain
You can take our lands
But I will still remain

What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
What was once home
(My soul replaced by lead)
My soul replaced by lead
My soul replaced by lead
