Snow Ghosts

Where was the hope
Where was the hope, you'd given up
You pulled down the world
Pulled down the world on top of us

Who decides, who decides
Who decides, who decides

Taken far too young
Taken far too young

Where was the trust where was the trust
You promised us
You pulled down the world
You pulled down the world on top of your us

Who decides, who decides
Who decides, who decides

Taken far too young
Taken far too young
Taken far too young
Taken far too young
