2. Please keep your hands down and stop raising your voice
It's hardly what i'd be doing if you gave me a choice
It's a simple suggestion can you give me some time So just say yes or no why cant you shoulder the blame cause both my shoulders are heavy from the weight of us both Your a big boy now so lets not talk about growth You've not heard a single word I have said
Oh my God

3. Please take it easy it can all be my fault
I haven't made half the mistakes that you've listed so far baby let me explain something it's all down to drugs at least i remember taking them and not a lot else it seems i've stepped over lines you've drawn again and again n
but if the ecstasy's in the wait is definatly out Dr Jekyll is rustled and Hyde
From my pride
