

The Dreadful Lullaby

Snow White's Poison Bite

Don't cry you're safe tonight
cuz I'll be by your side in the moonlight
don't cry you're safe tonight
with all the shooting stars in your eyesight
but sleep tight ill tuck you
in to dream all night
tomorrow mornings light
will shine so bright

because its not the end of the tender romance
its just the end of a lonely girl,
its just no smile
sweetheart don't cry
its your song
your dreadful lullaby

don't cry your safe tonight
the nightmares gave you thoughts of a sad life.
Don't cry you're safe tonight
you're just scared of the dream that's not real life
sleep tight ill tuck you

its just no smile
sweetheart don't cry

its not the end of the tender romance
its just the end of a lonely girl,
its just no smile
sweetheart don't cry

wake up happy and smile at the sunshine
fly through the clouds
and after the blue sky
angel wings can take you so high
so high
fly through the clouds and after the blue sky
