

Maybe I'm Lonely

Snow

What's this feeling that I'm feeling
when I'm feeling
maybe I'm lonely
what's this feeling
that I'm feeling
when I'm feeling
maybe I'm lonely

I paint a picture, girl
Of a love so true
Of all the beautiful things
You and I should do Imagination
It will drive me wild Till it reach the part Of painting your smile
Oh no, oh no, maybe I'm lonely

In the midnight
When I'm all alone
I turn the lights down
Soft and low
Start when I'm missin'
All the love I once knew

In comes the dreamin'
Of me lovin' you
Oh no, oh no, maybe I'm lonely

It bugs me, you think you love me Put her above me but love don't live here no more for you show me it's ugly when you reminisce, remember this I'm gonna need better than this Not gonna sit here and wait for love
I'm gonna go out and seek it
You want a classic freak
Like only you could keep a secret
I need attention, did I mention
I wanna get some respect
Try to go with the flow
But I keep losin' my bets Certain things I ain't do Because I wasn't ready yet
If you livin' a lie
Let the love be real
'cause you don't really miss me you just miss how it feels
