

Long Time

Snowy White

It's been such a long time
Since I held your little hand in mine
But I can still remember
How the feeling was sublime

Long time
Long time

It's been a good few years
Since I've seen your pretty face
But I can still remember
Your beauty and your grace

Long time

Now I'm going to drown my sorrows
In a nice glass of red
So that all this wishful thinking
Will go right out of my head

Long time
Long time

It's been such a long time
Since I've seen your pretty face
But I can still remember
Your beauty and your grace

Long time
Long time
