

Sweet Little Secret

Snowy White

I'm getting such a good feeling thinking 'bout you
Smiling at the memory of things we used to do

Flying in from LA on a 747
Manhattan skyline coming into view
Going to meet you at the airport
I'm coming on the red-eye
Taxi to the village and our sweet little secret
Going to turn another corner
Get a little closer

Then we're gonna take a walk
On the streets of New York
Yes, we're gonna take a walk
On the streets of New York

Climbing high on the 4th of July
Watching our fireworks lighting up the sky

Dancing to the music in central park
Taxi to the village before it gets dark
Gonna turn another corner
Break another sofa

Then we're gonna take a walk
On the streets of New York
Yes, we're gonna take a walk
On the streets of New York
