

The Rest Of My Life

Snowy White

It's so hard to stumble when you've got no place to fall
You know you might be better off if you didn't get on your feet at all

It took me a while to find out
I don't wanna go through the same old scream and shout
I'll be the same for the rest of my life
I won't play that game for the rest of my life

So many towns full of the same old things
And there's so many people fooled by the same old strings
Yeah, I just won't run and hide
'Cause you know I can never be satisfied
I'll leave it all for the rest of my life
I won't hear them call for the rest of my life

Hear me calling, ow!

So many times I sat down and wondered what to do
So many times, but it just ain't no use
I've tried every way I could think of
And all I've got left is the blues

It'll be around for the rest of my life
I'll hear that sound for the rest of my life
