

Déjà vu

Soak

I haven't seen you for months
I've been waiting up on a call
The stranger's voice to ask if I'm sitting down
No one does say it, but we're thinking the same thing
No one does say it, but we're thinking the same thing

No heaven in front of me, yeah
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu

There's no heaven in front of me
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu

You've been drinking again
Crashed the car and you blame the rain
Don't you think that you're better than that?
What a crying shame
All the neighbors are out in their dressing gowns
And the dogs are gone mad, it's all going down
No one does say it, but we're thinking the same thing

No heaven in front of me, yeah
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu

There's no heaven in front of me
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu

No heaven right in front of me
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu

No heaven right in front of me
A neon light catastrophe
No unexpected emergency
Nothing's new, déjà vu, déjà vu, déjà vu
