

Missed Calls

Soak

A brand new new year
From the flip side of the world
If I start diggin'
Would I find you somewhere within the earth?
With a shovel, a party popper
Your t-shirt reads, "Happy New Year!"

Watching the timer, on the microwave
Fell asleep before The Big Parade
At 30 past, I curse jetlag
Slept through fireworks, the city laughs

Missed calls, says it all
What am I to you?
It's some fall, my five feet tall
What am I to you?

I cannot sleep
Who's buying your drinks?
The sheets stick
This heat takes getting used to
Screaming count down
My kiss someone else's
"The best night of your life"
My heart comes down, down

Missed calls, says it all
What am I to you?
It's some fall, my five feet tall
What am I to you?

I was in a bathroom stall
Hidin' from the nightlife crawl
Hopin' you were feelin' somethin'
Enough to give me a call
I was never good at bein' patient
I care too much or not at all
Hopin' this could mean somethin'
Hopin' that I'm here at all

Missed calls, says it all
What am I to you? (Missed calls)
It's some fall, my five feet tall
What am I to you? (Missed calls)

What am I to you?
