

Reckless Behaviour

Soak

Reckless behaviour
I know, know better
There's smoke [?]

Dress like you're forty
Do what you want
When you're young and reckless
You should not be stopped
To learn, you've got to forget what they taught

And I won't waste my youth this year
So don't spend your night in tears

Slowly holding to things you told me
Most probably stole from unlying poetry
We'll go [?]
Forget about blazing
Live our nights like we're going to war

And I won't waste my youth this year
So don't spend your night in tears

Are reckless, ready for apocalypse
We are golden until the very last of us fall

And I won't waste my youth this year
So don't spend your night in tears

Reckless behaviour
I know, know better
