

Evergreen

Soccer Mommy

I don't wanna be that girl
Hiding under all my clothing
I don't wanna feel the same
Evergreen

I don't wanna be let down
By another perfect memory
I don't wanna hear her name
Evergreen
Evergreen

And in the light of day
I only see what's gone
Although the sun remains not evergreen

There's a chill across the wind
Frosting over rolling hills and
I can only hear her name
Evergreen
Evergreen

Two years gone by and I'm still pondering it all
She cannot fade, she is so evergreen
And in the light of day, I'm haunted by it all
She cannot fade, she is so evergreen
Evergreen
