

Pretty In Pink

Social Club Misfits

You're in my dreams
And believe you me, it's not as creepy as it seems
From the moment that I laid my eyes on you
It felt very unusual, beautiful
And now my heart won't stop, it's beating

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind

Yo, this is based on a true story. D-
Flow, Rey, you were there. You remember, c'mon, you remember

Everytime that she looks at me
I say something dumb like, "I love to eat"
I can't say, "Have lunch with me"
That would be too simple to come from me
I mean, I really love your company, not your job
If you come with me to hangout it'd kind of feel like love to me
And she smiled and said, "Yo, what you want from me?"
I'm like, "Some kids, a dog, whatever it takes"
I just wanna make you mine
She said, "One thing at a time"
Wait, hold up, hold up
(You're holdin' up my line)
Look back said, "Sorry guys"
Wait no, I don't apologize
I need your number on this dotted line
She laughed and said, "Yo, come by at 9"
And let's go

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind

When you have so much history
Somebody that you met over a decade plus
Can't say much
In a world where love seems to come and go
I just love it when we lay in the cut
Early stages in our romance
Sitcom marathons, good restaurants
I'd forever flirt with you, and I'll never stop
I work hard to shift the culture over
You always told me I gotta watch for culture vultures
When my world was in disarray, together we prayed and weathered anything in our way
You're on my mind like my health as I'm gettin' older
But puttin' God first, He slid and took the steerin' over

Together as parents we're Jordan and Pippen
And I'm your other set of shoulders so you never be slippin'
I know it gets crazy, I know I be trippin'
But I'm thinkin' 'bout you every second
Skrip, sing it

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind

I'm thinkin' of you
I'm thinkin' of you all the time
You're on my mind
