Social Code

She's a picture perfect photograph
On acrylic paint and glue
A Mona Lisa drawn by Hollywood
But the frame can't hide the truth
Put my faith and I wasted my time

[Chorus]

I need a real girl, real world
I need a someone to hold on to
I need a real girl, real world
How did I ever end up with you?
I need a real girl

Yeah my life is like a storybook
But you told the ending out
Now I'm chasing down that paper trail
What's this fantasy all about?
Put my faith and I wasted my time

[Chorus]

Oh, yeah
Na na na na na

Thought you'd inspire me, lie with me
Teach me things that no one else would
I need you to stay with me, wait for me
Be for me what no one else could
I need a real girl, real world

A Mona Lisa Drawn by Hollywood
But the frame can't hide the truth
Put my faith and I wasted my time

I need a real girl
Oh, I need a real girl
I need a real girl
Yeah, I need a real girl
I need a real girl
I need a real girl...
