

Down on Your Knees

Sodom

As the hungry guns fall silent
And the endless slaughter stops
The gasping wail of the wounded
Return to the grace of god
I will survive to take revenge
Nobody will bar my path
I'm trapped within your nightmare
When all your courage falls
When all your courage falls

Can't you hear the rumbling silence
Asymmetrical warfighting
Barrel bombs filled with chlorine
Torturous killing cyanide
To the very end you will remain
At least the bullet to your brain
Your highly soul is sunk so deep
Down on your knees

Final habitat in front of me
Boundless walls of pulsing red
Once the shiny life prevailed
Gathering darkness overhead
You can't respect my perspective
I am the chosen one to kill
There's no bullet to stop me now
With certainty I will
With certainty I will

Can't you hear the rumbling silence
Asymmetrical warfighting
Barrel bombs filled with chlorine
Torturous killing cyanide
To the very end you will remain
At least the bullet to your brain
Your highly soul is sunk so deep
Down on your knees

I raise my sword above their heads
Bring em down in a single sweep
No more room to be confessed
Kill them like the way
They wanted to be killed
Down on your knees

Pain and agony take control
Haunted by relentless dead
Condemned to extinction
Reduced to shades of black
Down on your knees

Can't you hear the rumbling silence
Asymmetrical warfighting
Barrel bombs filled with chlorine
Torturous killing cyanide
To the very end you will remain
At least the bullet to your brain

Your hightly soul is sunk so deep
Down on your knees

Down on your knees
Get down on your knees
