

Genesis XIX

Sodom

Two angels on the way to hell
Chosen by the grace of god
They came to show a final sign
To save a righteous man

Blessed those who always kept their faith
Destroy the ones who live in sin
Glowing cities down below
Evil cannot win

The judgement day will come
When all the sinners have to pay
So leave this place and don't look back
Before it's coming to an end

The skies above their heads
Razed for eternity
Dead sea and rivers of red
In genesis XIX

The brimstone raining overcast
Into the fiery gorge of hell
Revealed their treacherous facade
When the holy fire fell

Blessed those who always kept their faith
Destroy the ones who live in sin
Glowing cities down below
Evil cannot win

God struck em all with blindness
They could not see the truth
Sodom and the sinful plains
Solidified and scorched

The skies above their heads
Razed for eternity
In genesis XIX

Lot woke up in a frightened dream
To leave this wicked land
Up to the sacred hills
His daughters by his hands

Blessed those who always kept their faith
Destroy the ones who live in sin
Glowing cities down below
Evil cannot win

When he killed everyone around
And no one was reprieved
No righteous men were found
No warning signs to leave that night

The skies above their heads
Razed for eternity

Ruthful enemy
Razed for eternity
