

Invocating the Demons

Sodom

There is no act of desperation
Insatiable desire for kill
You'll never find your isolation
Erasing your deceit

Minds collapsed to smithereens
Dead just for a while
Dancing with immortal souls
When victims passing by

Can't freeze the smile on your face
Caressed on sacred ground
Reject this peaceful planet
Ignite your shielding sky

Invocating the demons
The seed I've sown to earn
Invocating the demons
Can you hear my hunger roar

Dreams of invented fantasies
Realized by blunted fear of god
To cross forbidden boundaries
To drink your sacred blood

Descended from a loaded gun
A violently regress
Lost dignity is deathless
Gone without a trace

My sorrow felt by those who mourn
Perished by complacency
Bludgeoning at my instigation
Just want your false docility

Invocating the demons
The seed I've sown to earn
Invocating the demons
Can you hear my hunger roar

There is no act of desperation
Insatiable desire for kill
You'll never find your isolation
Erasing your deceit

Minds collapsed to smithereens
Dead just for a while
Dancing with immortal souls
When victims passing by

Can't freeze the smile on your face
Caressed on sacred ground
Reject this peaceful planet
Ignite your shielding sky

Invocating the demons

Invocating the demons
